

International Comparative Seminar on Olympic Studies and Research:

East meets West: Enhancing Intercultural Dialogue

奥林匹克国际比较研究学术研讨会

东西方对话：加强跨文化交流

1 Seminar Background 会议背景

Olympic sport and the modern Olympic movement have been intended from the outset of the modern Games, to be global and inclusive phenomena, bringing together nations and individuals of diverse cultural origins, and politico-economic persuasions to engage in friendly competition. Such engagement should be intended to reflect the Olympic values, of friendship, excellence and respect, in sporting competition, but is also in cultural initiatives, such as Olympic education programmes, the Olympic Truce, or the establishing of the IOC Olympic Refugee Team. However, while the Olympic movement has sought to embrace togetherness and to celebrate cultural diversity there have been cultural fractures evident in the movement, manifested in formal terms on occasions, for example, of Olympic boycotts, and in the decreasing (but still evident) over-representation of Western nations in the membership of international sporting bodies. Indeed, while the IOC has adopted French and English languages as Olympic languages, and the language of the host nation for the duration of an Olympiad, this arrangement underlines a history of western-centric governance of the Olympic system.

This event focuses on the identification and evaluation of opportunities and barriers in Olympic sport and Olympic studies, to developing inter-cultural communication and understanding between cultures, in particular between Europe and Asia. The event brings together ten leading scholars from the West and twenty from China, in a two-day's event which is structured around the presentation and debate of ten invited papers. The papers are intended to be brief (20 minute), provocative introductions of topics and issues, designed to generate discussion, and to foster, East-West dialogue, concerning the development and dissemination of ideas relating to the contemporary Olympic movement.

The invited papers presented are not necessarily intended to be produced in a form suitable for publication (though after the event authors will be invited to consider submitting a fuller version of the paper to the Asian Journal of Sport History and Culture). The primary objective of the event is to identify actions which will foster dialogue between scholars and sports politicians and increase inter-cultural debate and exchange.

自现代奥运会诞生以来，奥林匹克运动和现代奥林匹克运动旨在成为一种全球性和包容性的现象，将具有不同文化、政治、经济、信仰背景的国家和个人聚集在一起，进行公平竞赛。这种竞赛的目的是在体育竞赛中展现友谊、卓越和尊重的奥林匹克价值观，同时也体现在文化活动中，如奥林匹克教育计划、奥林匹克休战或建立国际奥委会奥林匹克难民队。然而，尽管奥林匹克运动一直在寻求团结一致和弘扬文化多样性，但运动中的文化断裂也是显而易见的，这表现在一些正式场合，例如抵制奥林匹克

运动，以及西方国家在国际体育机构成员比例过高的现象，（虽日益减少，但依然明显）。事实上，虽然国际奥委会已将法语和英语作为奥林匹克官方语言，并在奥运会期间将主办国的语言作为奥林匹克语言，但这种安排仍凸显了以西方为中心的奥林匹克体系治理历史。

本次研讨会的重点是确定和评估奥林匹克运动和奥林匹克研究中的机遇和障碍，以促进不同文化间，特别是在欧洲和亚洲之间的交流 and 理解。在为期两天的活动中，来自西方的十位著名学者和来自中国的二十余位著名学者将围绕十篇特邀论文和题目展开演讲和辩论。这些论文旨在以简短（20 分钟）、富有启发性的方式介绍相关主题和问题，旨在就当代奥林匹克运动和奥林匹克思想的发展和传播展开讨论，并促进东西方对话。

在会发言的有关论文和发言，在会议结束后，将考虑邀请作者和发言者向《亚洲体育历史与文化期刊》提交更完整的论文。并由泰勒-弗朗西斯出版集团结集成书出版。本次研讨会的主要目的是确定可促进学者与体育政治家之间对话的行动，并增加跨文化辩论和交流。
